

Propane Cylinder Training

As per T.S.S.A. (Technical Safety Standard Authority) standards, every person who handles propane i.e. changing a tank, must complete the course re propane handling to become competent. Safety Connection has been approved by the T.S.S.A. to issue the Propane Record of the Training.

What the participant will learn:

- Review hazards associated with handling propane.
- "Cutout" views of actual parts of a typical propane tank & review capabilities. Watch video on the proper technique used to change a propane tank.
- Review cylinder exchange procedures.

Instruction:

- In class instruction with videos and hands on demonstration with a propane tank.
- All materials, manuals, and equipment are supplied.

Who Should Attend:

- Forklift Drivers
- Any employee working with propane tanks.

Course Length:

- 1.5 hours
- Each successful person will receive a wallet card confirming their competency.

YOUR BUSINESS IS IMPORTANT TO US!